

FGM Awareness Training

The Training is an opportunity for professionals to:

- Understand what FGM is and distinguish the four types.
- Identify key health risks and consequences.
- Identify who is at risk and describe the key indicators.
- Be aware of your role in preventing and supporting someone who has undergone FGM.

These trainings are open to any frontline professional who thinks they may come FGM in their day to day work.

Dates:

Tuesday 19 September 2017 Time: 13.30-16.30pm

Tuesday 28 November 2017 Time: 13.30-16.30pm

Thursday 22 February 2018 Time: 10.00-13.00pm

Venue: 18 Waterloo Road, Wolverhampton.

Cost: £40 per delegate.

For information and booking enquiries please email:

training@havenrefuge.org.uk

Training Coordinator: Rebecca Mathews. Rebecca has significant experience of working directly with women who have experienced domestic abuse and worked in the sector for 18 years, trained for 7 years and is PTTLS qualified.

